IMPORTANT CRIMINAL IS ARRESTED IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, July 15.—Frank A. Chapman, who was arrested at Pasadena Monday charged with attempting to steal a diamond pin from a visiting delegate to the Elks grand lodge, may turn out to be one of the most important criminals that has been arrested here in years. The police yesterday identified Chapman by the Bertillon measurements as Fred W. Diehn, or "Little Fritz," said to be a member of the notorious gang of "Sheep Benders" in New York City. Diehn, who is also known as P. N. Robertson, is wanted in Windsor, Ont., on a charge of stealing $1,573 from a clerk in the Sovereign bank of Canada. It is reported that he is also wanted in various other places in connection with big robberies.

The sheriff's office was informed of the identification of Chapman as Diehn by an eastern detective. The sheriff declined to give any further information as it was stated, they expected to make several additional arrests of alleged confederates of Diehn, who are thought to be here mingling with the convention crowd.

It was also stated that the man who identified Chapman as Diehn, did not wish his name made public, as he had been threatened with death by members of "Sheep Benders" gang for work he had done against them.

YOUNG GIRLS HOLD UP A MAN AND GET TEN CENTS

Chicago, July 15.—Two sisters, the elder 16 years old, held up Charles Natel in South Chicago last night and with an empty revolver forced him to give up ten cents under penalty of death. Natel gave up the dime and then ran to a nearby police station.

He returned with a police escort, which captured the hold-up girls. When taken before the sergeant the sisters treated the whole affair as a joke, laughingly recalling the nervousness of their victim.

Between giggles they gave their names as Helen Derowska, 16 years, and Bertha, 15 years old. They admitted taking the money from Natel under threats to kill him, declaring they wanted an ice-cream soda.

The girls, both of whom are small, stout and good looking, said they recently had visited a Wild West show and had become imbued with the idea that robbery was an easy way to obtain money.

Waco, Texas, July 15.—Governor Campbell will be asked to call a special session of the legislature by M. B. Davis of this city, secretary of the Texas Audubon Society, to take some action for the protection of the horned toad, which is rapidly becoming extinct in this state.

Mr. Davis says the creatures are being shipped to Chicago and other large cities in enormous quantities, where they are metallized and used for hat pins.

PACKAGE IS SOMEWHAT A MYSTERY

CAME FROM SALT LAKE AND CONTAINED STOLEN GOODS.

Supposed to Be Part of a Trick to Throw the Officers Off in Their Search.

A package, postmarked Salt Lake, containing a valuable ostrich plume and a note signed "A Lady," has been received at Lyman Bros. wholesale millinery store.

The plume bears the price mark of the Lyman Bros. establishment and is, without a doubt, one of the forty-one that were stolen from this store not long ago.

The note accompanying the package explains that the feather was purchased in Salt Lake from a man wearing a brown suit of clothes. The writer states that she secured Lyman Bros. address through the newspapers, and, learning of the robbery of the store, hastened to forward the plume. She does not mention, however, that she would like the return of the $7 paid for the article.

This note, and the package coming from Salt Lake, where G. A. Converse, the man alleged to have stolen the goods, and now in jail here, was arrested, and where some of the stolen feathers located in the millinery shops, leads the police to believe that Converse had an accomplice, and that this return of the feather is only an attempt to throw suspicion on some other person, and get the officers off the right track.

Converse was in police court this morning. He waived examination, and will appear before the district court. His bail is $500.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Buschjost, who have charge of Lyman Bros. store, were in the court room this morning, and, after getting a good look at Converse, Mrs. Buschjost said she recognized him as the man who came to the millinery store the day before the robbery and manifested unusual interest in the price and quality of the fancy plumes.

Converse, it is said, has expressed a willingness to settle for the stolen goods.

"GET THE JOIE HABIT."

This is the advice of the manager at the new theater, "The Joie," which was formerly called "Dreamland," but which has changed hands and now is under new management. Mr. James G. Ellis, the new manager, comes to the city and is well versed in the moving picture business, having followed it for the past three years, while it has improved from a flickering picture almost unbearable to the eyes to a steady, flickerless picture almost as real as life itself. At the Joie there has been installed the latest device in improvements for picture machines and the public can now look at the pictures without the least strain or injury to the eyes.

The building in which the Theater is located has been thoroughly cleaned and renovated and now has a very inviting appearance, everything is absolutely first-class and will continue so as long as it is under the present management.

The programme at the Joie will be confined entirely to moving pictures and pictured songs and will be absolutely the best; nothing you have ever seen before will be seen at the Joie. The entertainment at this theater is for ladies and children, and no picture will be shown that can possibly offend the most refined taste.

The programme for this week is very interesting and exciting. The feature being an actual fire scene in the city of Paris, France, the burning of a large factory. You see the fire starting, the alarm given, the fire engines rushing madly to the scene, then the burning to the ground of the great factory, covering a space of two solid blocks; along with it is all the sounds, effects, the ringing of the fire bells, the clashing of horses' hoofs on the pavement, etc. This picture alone is worth the price of admission. Get the "Joie Habit"—you will enjoy it.

SHEEPMEN MUST DIP THEIR FLOCKS IN WEBER

J. S. Dade, inspector for Weber and Cache counties for the United States bureau of animal industry, is consulting with Dr. Frank E. Murray, inspector in charge, and Dr. Thomas Redmond, chief clerk of the bureau for Utah, relative to conditions in his territory.

"There is a tendency on the part of a large number of sheepmen in Weber and Cache counties," said the inspector, "to evade the regulations laid down by the agricultural department in the matter of dipping sheep. Many of them object to the dipping of their animals and declare that they are put to unnecessary trouble and expense by the government. In one or two instances we have found it necessary to inform the sheepmen that unless the requirements of the department are rigorously adhered to and observed to the letter they would be forbidden to ship an animal out of the state during the coming fall.

"The majority of the sheepmen, however, feel that the requirements of the government are perfectly fair and that their own best interests and the best interests of the state are being served by the observance of the laws and are cheerfully complying with all directions.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF MILK ARE ADVANCED

Salt Lake, July 13.—Compelled to furnish Salt Lake consumers with pure and cleaner milk because of the vigilance of the city and state food and dairy inspectors, the milk producers of this section have demanded a higher price for their product and will get it.

Beginning today the local creamery companies will pay the producers 15 cents a gallon for their milk, which is an increase of two cents a gallon.

In return, the creamery people demand that the quality of the milk be greatly improved.

The creamery companies are compelled to pay the increased price or have much of their milk poured into the sewer. They met with the farmers yesterday and agreed to the advance, and at the same time instructed the producers that the milk must be up to the standard required by law, or it would not be received. The condition has been brought about abruptly by the actions of Walter J. Frazier and Willard Hansen, city and state dairy and food inspectors, respectively. A few days ago they poured about ninety gallons of milk into the sewer because it was either too warm or too dirty or both, and declared that other milk not up to the standard required by law would be treated the same way in the future.

UTAH DRUGGISTS IN STATE CONVENTION

Many Members of Utah Pharmaceutical Association at First Session.

Salt Lake, July 15.—The keynote of each discussion of the opening day of the Utah Pharmaceutical association convention was progress.

The convention opened at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Commercial club. Forty members answered the first roll call and fully forty arrived during the day. With the druggists have come their wives and many friends, making a goodly throng of jolly people.

The address of welcome to the visiting delegates was made by Dr. W. A. Wade of Salt Lake. He bade them use the city as they wished while here. He hoped that the convention would be of profit not only to the druggists but to the general public. Responses were made by Wynn L. Eddle of Brigham City and John L. Boyden of Coalville. Aside from these three addresses the morning session was devoted to routine matters.

In the afternoon the first of the many prepared papers were given and were followed by keen discussion. John F. Culley of Ogden read a paper on "Chemistry and Its Practical Application to Every Day Pharmacy." Alex Hedquist of Provo handled the subject of "The Function of the State Board of Pharmacy and the New Pharmacy Laws." A. S. Horne of the Willis-Horne Drug company, Ralph Nelden, A. R. McIntyre, T. R. Kelly, Dr. R. R. Brown field and others, also delivered addresses on subjects of interest to the profession.

In the evening the convention adjourned to allow the members to join the women visitors at Saltair. The latter went to the resort in the afternoon. Bathing and boating was indulged in until the men arrived when all gathered at the ship cafe, "Leviathan," for a banquet, after which a ball concluded the day.

CHAPEL CAR ARRIVES IN OGDEN

CHURCH ON WHEELS ATTRACTS THE ATTENTION OF ALL.

Car is Elegantly Furnished With Altar, Pews and Even an Organ—Object of Traveling Church.

The Catholic chapel car "St. Anthony," arrived this morning over the Union Pacific from Rawlins and later in the day was sent down to Salt Lake. The car was occupied by several priests. It is used for services along the railroads where no church organizations have been effected.

Attracted by the unique and novel sight of a church on wheels, many Ogdenites inspected the car at the depot. First catching sight of the car many supposed it was an ordinary Pullman coach of the deep dark green variety. But on looking for the name the attention of all was at once arrested. This inscription on gold letters explained the presence of the car, "Chapel Car St. Anthony."

On the top was the lettering, "The Catholic Church Extension Society of the United States of America." Rev. A. P. Landry alighted from the front end and explained that the church was open for inspection. On entering the door it seemed as if the visitor had entered his own church. Instead of the cushion-covered seats were pews, the altar was there, the organ, everything that constitutes the interior of a church was presented to the eye in miniature.

From the diminutive organ in front of the miniature kitchen in the rear of the apartments the whole interior was a marvel of compact beauty. The furniture is elegant yet simple.

The chaplain, Father Landry, and the superintendent, George C. Hennessey, were the only occupants. No services were held in the car, but there were visitors, many of whom stopped a minute to pray, and then pass on inspecting the car's interesting and attractive interior.

The car is the gift of Hon. Ambrose Petry, of New York, one of the most distinguished Catholic citizens of the United States, who recently received from Pope Plus X the honor of being created a Knight of St. Gregory the Great. Mr. Petry is president of the Commercial Securities company and is prominent in financial circles in the east.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE FRANK C. GILLENBECK

The funeral of the late Frank C. Gillenbeck, occurred this afternoon from Richey's undertaking parlors and was largely attended by railroad officials, employees and friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Fleetwood of the Episcopal church, and the floral offerings to the memory of the deceased were numerous and appropriate and superbly beautiful. The pallbearers were Superintendent W. A. Whitney, P. J. Murphy, C. L. Miller, J. J. Mackin, P. F. Paxon and Fred Gentsch, and interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Representatives of the Harriman hotel and dining car system were present in large numbers from various points on the Harriman roads and telegrams of condolence were received by the family from many who were unable to be present at the services. The local offices of the department were closed for the afternoon and the employees attended the funeral in a body.

The death of Mr. Gillenbeck is a severe loss to the department in which he served so acceptably, and his popularity is evinced by the expressions of sorrow and sympathy for the family heard in all departments of the various lines where he was known, respected and esteemed.

"Never mind the figures," Mr. Patlen interrupted.
